¶124.17 COMMUNICATION FROM THE CLERK—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mrs. UNSOELD, laid before the House a communication, which was read as follows:

WASHINGTON, DC,
October 27, 1993.

Hon. THOMAS S. FOLEY,
*The Speaker, U.S. House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.*

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: Pursuant to the permission granted in Clause 5 of Rule III of the Rules of the U.S. House of Representatives, I have the honor to transmit a sealed envelope received from the White House on Tuesday, October 26, 1993 at 8:00 p.m. and said to contain a message from the President wherein he transmits the "Government Reform and Savings Act of 1993", draft legislation.

With great respect, I am
Sincerely yours,

DONNALD K. ANDERSON,
Clerk, House of Representatives.

¶124.18 GOVERNMENT REFORM

The Clerk then read the message from the President, as follows:

To the Congress of the United States:

I am pleased to transmit today for your immediate consideration and enactment the "Government Reform and Savings Act of 1993". This legislation is based on the recommendations of the National Performance Review (NPR). Also transmitted is a section-by-section analysis.

The goal of the NPR is to provide the American people with a more effective, efficient, and responsive government—a government that works better and costs less. The NPR began on March 3, 1993, when I asked Vice President Gore to conduct an intensive 6-month review of how the Federal Government works. The Vice President organized a team of experienced Federal employees from all corners of government to examine both agencies and cross-cutting systems, such as budgeting, financial management, procurement, and personnel. He spoke with employees at every major agency and sought the views of hundreds of organizations, business leaders, and State and local officials.

The NPR report presents numerous proposals, some of which require legislation, some of which can be achieved through administrative action. The legislation I am presenting today is a major step in implementing those NPR recommendations that require action by the Congress. I plan to include additional NPR proposals in the Fiscal Year 1995 Budget.

This legislation includes proposals that seek to: consolidate and streamline agency operations; eliminate unnecessary programs; end unneeded subsidies; improve financial management and debt collection; reduce the burdens resulting from statutory reporting requirements; and improve the dissemination of government information. They were selected from the NPR report with the expectation that they can be considered expeditiously by the Congress. It is my hope that these recommendations will be passed by the Congress prior to adjournment this year.

The savings total for the legislation I am submitting today is $9 billion.

To accompany these NPR recommendations, a package of rescissions will be sent to the Congress shortly. The Administration is also working with the appropriate committees of jurisdiction on a major procurement reform measure.

By implementing these recommendations, I believe we can make fundamental changes for the better in the performance of the Federal Government. I pledge to work with the Congress to ensure the prompt enactment of this legislation.

WILLIAM J. CLINTON.

THE WHITE HOUSE, October 26, 1993.

By unanimous consent, the message, together with the accompanying papers, was referred to the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union and ordered to be printed (H. Doc. 103-155).
